

SCHOOL CHILDREN TO HONOR HOOSIER POET

One of James Whitcomb Riley's Poems Will Be Read in Class Rooms October 7.

A request that one of James Whitcomb Riley's poems be read in the public schools of the country October 7, the anniversary of "the Hoosier poet's" birth, was sent to the school superintendents of the States by Secretary of the Interior Lane on Saturday. Secretary Lane's request called attention to the fact that Riley "is the last of a generation of literary men who were distinctly American and did much in poetry and prose to reveal the beauty and struggle of American life."

Ernest L. Thurston, superintendent of schools in the District, said last night he had received Secretary Lane's request Saturday. It probably will be complied with if received.

Mr. Thurston said at Greenfield, Ill., in 1882. He is a prominent member of the American Academy of Arts and Letters. His writings include "The Old Settlers' Tale" and "Leaves More Poems." "Pines of the Night," "A Child-World," "Out to Old Aunt Mary's," "When She Was About Sixteen" and "The Little Orphan Annie Book."

U-BOATS CONQUERED, HE SAYS.

American Sportsman Tells of Success of British Methods.

New Haven, Conn., Oct. 3.—The back of the submarine warfare has been broken, declared Coach Guy Nickalls, of the Yale crew, who has just arrived here from England.

"Normally, the submarine does no damage to the battleships," he preyed upon commerce. Now even this has ceased. The English have sunk about fifty of the submarines. Indeed, all her magnificent submarine navy Germany now only possesses five of the late type.

Nickalls declared conscription was only a matter of time in England, and it would raise an additional army of 2,000,000.

FLYING GUN NEWEST IN WAR.

French Now Able to Bombard Enemy Towns from Skies.

Paris, Oct. 3.—The new gunplane used by the French army and mentioned in today's official communiqué is a biplane with a small Hotchkiss gun fitted on the upper plane. This machine was first experimented with last January by Capt. Remy and Faure, who were crushed to death near Paris.

Since the gunplane has been improved, and now the French are able to bombard towns from the air. Many of them are in use on the front.

NAVY LEAGUE ENLISTS CHILDREN FOR DEFENSE

Conference Tomorrow Will Plan Campaign to Work for National "Preparedness."

The Navy League has arranged to meet delegates from nearly every State in the Union at the committee-men's conference to begin at the New Willard in Washington tomorrow. The object of the conference is to organize every community in the United States with subsidiary committees of the Navy League to work for President Wilson's national defense policies in the next Congress.

Senator Borah, of Idaho, has consented to speak at a luncheon tomorrow at the New Willard. He will be accompanied by Governor O'Neill, of Alabama; Mr. John A. Logan, Samuel Gompers and others. The morning discussion will be devoted to organization plans. John Callan (Laughlin), a newspaperman, will preside. The discussion will proceed under a ten-minute rule. More than five hundred delegates are expected to be in attendance.

A junior section of the Navy League has been formed to inculcate the lessons of the war in children. One purpose is to educate the rising generation in the necessity of preparedness and of the patriotic duty to be ever ready to answer the call of the country for service in national defense. An active campaign for membership among children will go forward at once with a view of securing without delay a membership of thousands.

Each child joining will be required to sign a written pledge dedicating "heart, mind and body to the service of the country." Drills will be arranged for naval boys scouts and junior naval reserves of boys while the girls will be drilled in work of "first aid" and "nursing." The Women's Section of the Navy League is responsible for the plan for the organization of the children. The Junior has as honorary chairman, Mary S. Lockwood, of Washington, while Mrs. Benjamin Reeves Russell, wife of Lieut. Col. Russell, is active chairman.

Among prominent women serving on the Junior Section are Miss Grace M. Pierce, vice president general; Mrs. Ralph E. Strassburger, Mrs. John Temple Graves, Mrs. Parks Fisher, sister of Admiral Schley, and Mrs. Mary Logan Tucker, daughter of the late Gen. Logan. The age limit for the Junior Section has been fixed at 18.

ALL IN READINESS FOR KING CARNIVAL

Mid-City Citizens' Association and the merchants of the town.

Grand Marshal Joseph A. Berberich, who is to command the parade and watch over the merrymaking, held a last meeting with his aids yesterday at 1009 Seventh street and found that all is ready for the fun to begin. Every detail has been attended. Mr. Berberich let it be known that requests for positions in the parade still are being received and granted.

"The number of entrants in the parade has far exceeded my expectations," said Grand Marshal Berberich.

He announced that the following additional organizations will be seen in Section 3 of the parade, the carnival section:

One float and fifty costumed men with a fife and drum corps, representing the O Street Market.

One float and from fifty to 100 Woodmen of the World, accompanied by their Ladies' Auxiliary.

Fifty or more Red Men of the District of Columbia.

One float and a group of Moose, Boy Scouts and a fife and drum corps.

Parade Starts at 7:30.

The parade will start at 7:30 o'clock and from the moment that Grand Marshal Berberich blows his whistle, setting the mammoth pageant in motion, until the last handful of confetti is tossed at some bright-eyed girl, there will be something of the spirit of the carnival to the parade of a good time. Rowdiness will be frowned upon and rowdies escorted to a place outside of the realm of fun.

At 7:45 o'clock, when the whole pageant is in motion and the merry-making is in crescendo, a representative of the District electrical department will show a switch and the new lights which grace the thoroughfare will blaze forth for the first time in dazzling radiance. Then red lights will spring into life, signaling a joyous welcome to all the electric lights in Seventh street to join in the fun with their brilliance.

The one solemn feature of the whole affair will be seen at Seventh and M streets, where will be gathered the four judges who must name the prize winning decorated windows and shops. The quartet of judges have been given a difficult task, for the decorations are all so artistic and elaborate that it will be hard to designate the best. The judges, designated by the four Washington newspapers, are Troland Clear, The Washington Herald; J. R. Hamilton, Times; Leroy W. Herron, Star, and R. L. Goldsmith, Post.

"It is most gratifying that nearly everybody in the city has given out of some kind," said A. J. Driscoll, president of the Mid-City Citizens' Association, last night. "I see no good reason why this affair should not be repeated every year. Such an affair brightens the life of a city and kindles that community spirit that is paramount in the rapid and successful development of a municipality."

Committee Badges for All.
"I want to request every member of the Mid-City Citizens' Association to appear at Seventh and K streets promptly at 6:30 o'clock, on Monday night and give their aid in procuring the maximum success for the affair. Committee badges will be provided for all."

"The Mt. Rainier Board of Trade from Mt. Rainier, Md., will be represented by nearly all its members who will appear in the procession in automobiles."

"The following communications, addressed to me as president of the Mid-City Citizens' Association, are indicative of what the representative men of Washington think of the celebration:

"Hope your affair will be a big success. I approve of it. P. T. Moran, president of the Chamber of Commerce."

"I congratulate you on the good work and accept with thanks your invitation to participate." E. C. Brandenburg, president of the Board of Trade.

"If I am in the city I will be with you, surely." Ross P. Andrews, Retail Merchants' Association.

"I will be glad to be present and participate." E. F. Colladay, president of the Federation of Citizens' Association.

"I am delighted to receive your invitation to participate in the parade and will be present." D. A. Edwards, former president of the Federation of Citizens' Association.

"Replies of acceptance also have been received from D. J. Donovan, secretary of the Board of Commissioners; C. P. Hunt, District Commissioner; Thomas J. Fisher, Jr.; O. R. Singleton, Board of Trade; W. F. Peabody, president of the Safety First Association; Thomas Grant, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce; Charles Columbus, secretary of the Retail Merchants' Association; C. J. Gockeler, secretary of the Board of Trade; L. Gans, and many other representative citizens."

"After the parade ends bands will take stations at Seventh and K streets, Seventh and M streets, Seventh and O streets, and Seventh street and Rhode Island avenue. Band concerts will be given until 10:30 o'clock and maybe later. The grand arch erected at Seventh and K streets is a work of art. The arch will be illuminated at 8 o'clock. Velvet kind ice cream, Lady Fairfax candy, Gude roses, and thousands of souvenirs and noise-makers will be distributed along the entire route of the parade."

CARRANZA'S PROSPECTS ARE STILL UNCERTAIN

No Definite Action Toward Recognition Will Be Taken By Congress.

It was learned last night that it is not the purpose of the pan-American conference when it meets on Saturday to take action that will definitely recognize Carranza, even if it should be conceded that his recognition affords the only satisfactory solution of the Mexican problem. Each member of the conference will recommend to his government what action he thinks should be taken, and the governments will assume the final responsibility.

The conference at its last session agreed that there should not be joint action. Secretary Lansing saw Judge Douglas, legal representative of the Carranzistas in this country, while in New York. During the week Mr. Lansing will have a conference with Eliseo Arredondo, the Carranzista representative in Washington. Carranza, for the Villistas, interviews will be given Felipe Angeles, Senor Maytorena, governor of the state of Sonora; Raul Madero, another Carranzista, head of the Villa agency here. It was said last night that the Villistas will insist that the peace conference of Mexico be originally called by the Carranzistas in this country, while in New York. During the week Mr. Lansing will have a conference with Eliseo Arredondo, the Carranzista representative in Washington. Carranza, for the Villistas, interviews will be given Felipe Angeles, Senor Maytorena, governor of the state of Sonora; Raul Madero, another Carranzista, head of the Villa agency here.
